Introduction

Techint E&C S.A. and its subsidiaries (hereinafter referred to as either "Techint E&C" or the "Company/ies") are committed to building a corporate culture of transparency and integrity based on ethical behavior and compliance with law. Techint E&C's Code of Conduct (available at https://www.techint.com/en/about-us/ethics-and-compliance/) reflects such culture and inspires and guides the actions of Techint E&C's employees at all levels.

Techint E&C understands that high standards of integrity and transparency can only be achieved by setting common rules among their employees, officers and directors but also among the third parties with which the Company interacts during the course of business. Since commitment and compliance of such common rules by Techint E&C's Suppliers becomes essential for securing Techint E&C's goals and expectations on ethical, transparent and rightful behavior, Techint E&C has developed a Code of Conduct for Suppliers which shall be applied by Suppliers and their respective employees, officers, directors or authorized representatives, without exception, in all dealings and transactions involving Techint E&C.

Diligent and consistent compliance with the provisions of the Code of Conduct for Suppliers will be considered for selection, retention and evaluation of Suppliers. Supplier shall be responsible for, which shall apply the principles contemplated in this Code of Conduct for Suppliers even in the relationships with the subcontractors they work with to the extent they participate in any way in transactions or dealings with Techint E&C.

In no case Suppliers shall abide to any order, request or instruction that might imply a breach or an infringement of the provisions of this Code of Conduct for Suppliers.

For this Code of Conduct, "Suppliers" shall include any person or entity performing any services or supplying any goods to Techint E&C or its subsidiaries, whether or not acting on behalf of Techint E&C or its subsidiaries, including but not limited to vendors or providers of any tier, agents, commercial intermediaries, consultants, distributors, traders or other contractors.

Expectations and Obligations

I. Conflicts of Interest

Suppliers should avoid any interaction with any Techint E&C's employee that may conflict, or appear to conflict with the best interests of Techint E&C.

For example, Suppliers should not employ or otherwise make payments to any employee of Techint E&C during the course of any transaction between the Supplier and Techint E&C. If a Supplier's employee has family relation (such as being spouse, parent, sibling, grandparent, child, grandchild, mother- or father-in-law, etc.) to an employee of Techint E&C, or if a Supplier's employee has any other relationship with a an employee of Techint E&C that might represent a conflict of interest, the Supplier should disclose such circumstance to Techint E&C.

Conflicts of interests involving an employee of Techint E&C must be fully disclosed in writing. To disclose any conflict of interest, Suppliers shall contact the corresponding Techint E&C's contracting area.

II. Gifts, Meals, Entertainment

Suppliers should not provide any gift[1], trips, meal or entertainment to a Techint E&C's employee in any situation in which it might influence, or appear to influence, any employee decision in relation to the Supplier. To the extent the circumstances merit, Suppliers may provide modest gifts, meals or entertainment to Techint E&C's employees if they do not violate any law and they are:

- not cash or cash equivalents;
- consistent with customary business practice and Supplier company policy;
- not frequent or expensive.

[1] "Gift" means anything of value which include, but is not limited to, any gratification, favor (such as, for example, the granting of permission to use vehicles or facilities), cash or cash equivalents, travel, lodging, meals, entertainment, kickbacks, loans, rewards, the provision of facilities or services at less than full cost, employment or retention of services and any other advantage or benefit of any kind (whether constituting, or derived from, corporate funds or assets, or personal or third-party funds or assets).

III. Bribery and Kickbacks

Suppliers should not engage in any form of commercial bribery or kickback scheme or otherwise offer any incentive to any Techint E&C's employee or Techint E&C employee's family or friends in order to obtain or retain Techint E&C business.

Suppliers must comply with anti-bribery laws applicable in the country where the respective agreement is entered into, performed or awarded, as well as all local laws dealing with bribery of Public Officials[2].

In connection with any transaction related to the manufacture, distribution or delivery of goods or services to Techint E&C, or that otherwise involves Techint E&C, the Supplier must not transfer anything of value, directly or indirectly, to any Public Official, employee of a government controlled company, or political party, in order to obtain any improper benefit or advantage (e.g., in connection with regulatory permits, customs, or judicial and legislative proceedings) neither to any Private Person[3].

Suppliers must keep a current and accurate written accounting of all payments (including any gifts, meals, entertainment or anything else of value) made on behalf of Techint E&C, or out of funds provided by Techint E&C. Suppliers must furnish a copy of this accounting to Techint E&C upon request.

[2] "Public Official" means (A) any officer or employee, or any person, whether elected or appointed, who holds a legislative, administrative or judicial position or who represents or acts on behalf of any state, government, or public international organization (for example the World Bank or the United Nations), any division, department, ministry, agency, or instrumentality (including corporations or other entities owned, controlled or operated for the benefit) of such governmental authority, or (B) any political party, party official or candidate for public office. Corporations or similar entities "controlled" by a state or government shall include any entity, regardless of its legal form, over which a state or government may, directly or indirectly, exercise a dominant influence. This is deemed to be the case, among others, when the state or government holds the majority of the entity's subscribed capital, controls the majority of votes attaching to securities issued by the entity or can appoint a majority of the members of the entity's administrative or managerial body or supervisory board. "Public Official" also includes a child, spouse, parent or sibling of a Public Official.

IV. Accounting and Business Records

Accurate, reliable information and records are critical to meeting Techint E&C's financial, legal, and management obligations and they are necessary to fairly reflect Techint E&C's transactions. Supplier must keep accurate records of all matters related to the Supplier's business with Techint E&C. This includes the proper, prompt and complete recording of all expenses and payments and the availability of supporting evidence and documentation. Suppliers should not impede, delay, drag out or otherwise hinder Techint E&C from properly and timely process accounting documents. Alteration or manipulation of any document in a way that may affect transparent and accurate registration shall be considered a serious infringement.

[3] "Private Person" means (A) any natural person of any citizenship or nationality, (B) any employee or representative of a corporation, partnership, association or other legal entity organized or existing under the laws of any country, whether for profit or not for profit, with which Techint E&C intends to do or does business; and (C) any child, spouse, parent or sibling of any such person.

V. Use of Techint E&C Assets

When the performance of services, the supply of goods or otherwise the discharge of their duties demands the use of Techint E&C's property, supplies, equipment and other assets, Suppliers are required to do so responsibly and ensure that any such assets are used for the intended purposes and by duly authorized persons.

Suppliers must protect and use responsibly Techint E&C property and other tangible and intangible assets. Suppliers must not use any trademark or any other intellectual property unless expressly permitted in writing by Techint E&C.

VI. Use of Technological Resources

When the performance of services, the supply of goods or otherwise the discharge of their duties demands the use of Techint E&C's equipment, systems and technological devices, Suppliers may not do so for purposes other than those authorized by Techint E&C or which are directly related to the fulfillment of the purposes of the relevant agreement.

Suppliers operating Techint E&C's technological resources shall be informed about user restrictions and shall not violate licensing agreements or do anything to compromise Techint E&C's responsibility or subject Techint E&C to liability to any third party or governmental authority.

Techint E&C's technological resources shall be handled in accordance with applicable laws and Techint E&C's policies.

Techint E&C has the right to monitor, at any time and without any notice, the use of its information technology resources, and therefore to access, review, copy or retrieve, files, documents, records, databases, electronic messages, internet activity and any other information generated through the use of Techint E&C's information technology resources. Accordingly, users of Techint E&C's information technology resources should not have any expectations of privacy over information or communications generated or transmitted through, or stored in, Techint E&C's information technology resources.

Information and data stored on Techint E&C's premises and information technology resources (including Techint E&C's computers) belong to Techint E&C and, accordingly, Techint E&C may choose to provide this information to regulators or other third parties if it deems it necessary or advisable.

VII. Protecting Information. Legitimate Use

Suppliers must keep confidential all the information to which they have access in the performance of their work, services or supply of goods to Techint E&C, even if such information is not classified or not specifically about Techint E&C and act to prevent its misuse, theft, fraud, or improper disclosure.

In all cases, Suppliers must use the information they receive or to which they may have access to in a legitimate way, for the specific purpose it was disclosed, received or accessed and in compliance with applicable laws (including without limitation, regulations on antitrust, data privacy, etc.). Techint E&C shall not tolerate misuse, dishonest, unauthorized, illegal or improper use of any information, even if the same benefits or otherwise determines an advantage to Techint E&C.

Suppliers must take all due care in handling, discussing, or transmitting sensitive or confidential information that could affect Techint E&C, its employees, its customers, the business community, or the general public. Suppliers are directly responsible for taking the necessary steps to safeguard Techint E&C information from damage or loss and to ensure its safe custody. Disclosure of financial information could influence the actions of shareholders and potential investors. Suppliers' responsibility to hold Techint E&C's confidential information as confidential is a continuing obligation even after their assignment or contract with Techint E&C.

VIII. Insider Trading

If Suppliers are aware of material, non-public information relating to Techint E&C or its business, they may not purchase, sell or otherwise trade in securities of Techint E&C or any company that trades with Techint E&C or engage.

IX. Intellectual Property Rights

Suppliers shall protect, preserve and respect intellectual proprietary rights belonging to Techint E&C. The ownership of intellectual property includes but is not limited to plans, systems, procedures, methodologies, courses, reports, forecasts or drawings that might be accessed by Suppliers in the course of business with Techint E&C.

X. Reporting Misconduct

Suppliers who believe that a Techint E&C's employee, anyone acting on behalf of Techint E&C, or any of Supplier's employees or representatives or any of Supplier's subcontractors related to the services or supply to Techint E&C, has engaged in illegal, improper conduct or any potential violation of the principles established in this Code must report the event to Techint E&C.

Reports may be made through: https://techintec.integrityline.app/

A Supplier's relationship with Techint E&C will not be affected by an honest report related to misconduct.

XI. Compliance with Laws

Suppliers are responsible for ensuring that their directors, officers, employees and subcontractors, representatives or agents understand and comply with applicable regulations and conventions, as well as regional and national legislation, to the extent applicable to the relevant agreement or commercial relationship.

XII. Trade Compliance

Suppliers transactions with Techint E&C must be at all times be in strict conformity with all relevant economic sanctions and export control laws and regulations, including but not limited to all economic sanctions and export control regimes as well as regulations issued by the United Nations, United States, and European Union regimes.

In the performance of the relevant agreement or any transaction related to Techint E&C shall not include or involve, directly or indirectly, any prohibited, sanctioned, or designated party under the United Nations, United States, or European Union sanctions regimes, including but not limited to parties on the List of Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons administered by the U.S. Treasury Office of Foreign Assets Control or any entity owned or controlled by such prohibited, sanctioned, or designated party.

Supplier shall not directly or indirectly sell, provide, export, re-export, transfer, divert, loan, lease, consign, or otherwise release or dispose of any equipment, product, services, software or technology received under the relevant agreement or within the performance of any transaction with Techint E&C to or via any individual, entity or destination, or for any use prohibited by the laws or regulations of any applicable jurisdiction without having obtained prior authorization from the competent governmental authorities as required by all such laws and regulations.

XIII. Health and Safety

Techint E&C Suppliers and subcontractors shall provide a safe and healthy working environment to prevent accidents and injury to health arising out of, linked with, or occurring in the course of work or as a result of the operation of employer facilities.

In addition, any Supplier representative providing on-site services in a Techint E&C facility is required to adhere to all Techint E&C health and safety standards.

XIV. Labor and Human Rights

Techint E&C is committed to conducting all its operations in a manner that is consistent with human rights principles that are applicable to business and with the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. Techint E&C expects its Suppliers to adhere to the same standards.

Suppliers shall act in compliance with the principles articulated in the ILO (International Labour Organization) Declaration of Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work. These include the prohibition against child labor, forced labor and discriminatory behavior as well as the recognition of the rights to freedom of association and collective bargaining.

Techint E&C values and respects the cultures and traditions of the communities in which it works and actively works to take into account the health, safety, environment, human rights and economic well-being of those communities in all its operations and expects its Suppliers to follow, respect and foster such values in all dealings and transactions with Techint E&C.

XV. Discrimination and Harassment

Techint E&C is committed to creating and sustaining a work environment in which each employee has the opportunity to grow, develop, and contribute fully to the Techint E&C's success. In such connection, sexual harassment, harassment, intimidation or discrimination of any employee will not be tolerated.

Suppliers shall not subject any person to discrimination in employment, including hiring, salary, benefits, advancement, discipline, termination or retirement, on the basis of gender, race, religion, age, disability, sexual orientation, nationality, political opinion, or social or ethnic origin.

Techint E&C Suppliers and subcontracts must treat their employees with respect and dignity. No employee shall be subject to physical, sexual or psychological harassment or abuse and are bound to avoid all forms of unlawful harassment.

XVI. Environment

Techint E&C aims to achieve continuous improvement in environmental performance, concentrating its efforts on areas of greatest impact at our manufacturing, operation, construction and large office sites. Techint E&C seeks to comply and expects all Suppliers to comply with the spirit as well as the letter of applicable environmental laws and regulations. Where none exists, Suppliers must set themselves appropriately high standards.

Suppliers shall actively strive to increase the positive and limit the negative impact of their operations and supply chain on the environment and society by establishing environmental plans that are focused on critical impacts on the environment.

The scope of these environmental plans must be appropriate in relation to the nature of the Supplier business and risks related to the business.

XVII. Suppliers' Evaluation and Monitoring

Acceptance and consistent compliance with this Code is an integral part of Techint E&C's management and evaluation procedure for Suppliers. In accordance with Techint E&C's a risk-based approach, Suppliers might be eligible to provide specific or further integrity credentials and to comply with additional measures to verify compliance with the requirements of this Code.
